

Ashland First United Methodist Church – Full Time

Congregation that averages 120 in worship. This is a progressive congregation situated in a very progressive and artistic community in southern Oregon. This is a church with growth potential that looks for more community engagement. They value thoughtful sermons and social activism. It is a church with a strong identity that seeks to build on good work that has been done with its current pastor. For more information, visit <http://ashlandmethodist.org/home>. Contact the Crater Lake District Superintendent John Tucker (john@umoi.org) for more information or to express interest.