Questions to Ask Potential Developer Partners

 We fully understand the societal costs of any diminution in our country's social equity, and the negative results of failing to embrace the diversity that characterizes our communities and nation. This understanding compels us to ask those with which we engage to do their part in overcoming these inequities. • What percentage of your subcontractors utilize Minority/Women/Emerging Small Businesses (i.e. on a project by project basis, what percentage of the total work was performed by MWESB subcontractors?) • Does your company have an explicit and monitored Social Equity and Diversity Policy? If so, please provide a copy of the policy. PROCESS AND FINANCING • Please provide your typical process for developing a project, including what you feel is a reasonable timeline for a project of this size. • What financial requirements do you have from owners and at what points do they typically appear on your timeline? • What is your preferred process for acquiring funding for projects? • Please describe your process and criteria for selecting architects and contractors. • Please supply a description of your fee structure.
